THE CALL WITH INTELLIGENCE SOUNDS LIKE THIS:

"Mr. Isaacs, I noticed you've built a portfolio of over 30 properties across Wake County — properties in Raleigh, Apex, Cary, Wake Forest. I work with established investors in these markets and I'm seeing some off-market inventory in your price range. I'd love to understand where you're focused for your next acquisition."

That's not a cold call. That's a warm introduction backed by research. The investor knows you did your homework. That's how your agents win the listing — or the next buy.
