Hi Jonathan and Kelly—I've been tracking your portfolio in Raleigh and noticed you've built something really focused here: four properties, two on Stonegate Drive, all with significant permit activity. You just closed on that 8505 Stonegate property in July. I work with a handful of active developers in your neighborhood, and I wanted to explore whether there are any off-market opportunities in that corridor I should be thinking about for you.

Strategic Suggestions

- Research the immediate area around 8505 and 8408 Stonegate Drive—identify 3-5 properties that could fit their assembly strategy (older homes, tired
- Pull recent permit data for both Stonegate properties and the Neuse Farm Dr property to understand their typical construction scope and timeline.
- Develop a simple 'Stonegate Corridor Market Report'—comparable rents, recent sales, price trends on that street. Offer this as a resource even if

Conversation Starters

- What's your timeline on the 8505 Stonegate project? Are you planning to hold for rental income or reposit and exit—that
- I noticed you're clustered on Stonegate—are you intentionally building out that street, or has it just worked out that
- With your permit activity, you clearly have trusted GCs and inspectors in Raleigh. Are there any gaps in your
