Hi Jing—I noticed you've built an impressive portfolio around Cary, particularly the clustering on Hubner Pl and Strendal Dr, and I can see from recent permits that you're actively developing. I work with active developers in the market and wanted to reach out because I track off-market opportunities and zoning/development trends in the neighborhoods where you're focused. Would be great to connect and see if there's a fit.

Strategic Suggestions

- Research and map the exact properties around Jing's existing Hubner Pl cluster (7127, 7129)—identify 2–3 adjacent or nearby parcels that fit the
- Pull permit data for all 6 properties and timeline the recent work—this tells you what phase of the development cycle Jing is in. If permits are
- Segment the portfolio by financing: identify why Avoca Ct ($2M, leveraged) was financed differently than recent Hubner Pl purchases (cash). Ask about

Conversation Starters

- I noticed your recent purchases on Hubner Pl were both cash and closed the same day in May—was that a planned assembly,
- Your portfolio has 59 permits across 6 properties—that's a serious development pipeline. What's the typical timeline
- Looking at your rent per property, Avoca Ct is generating significantly higher income than the others. Was that a
